

Operation JAMES BOND

1–10 May 1945

From the very beginning of the war, the British ran German Army Intelligence and had insight into what the General Staff were doing. This made the war a very planned war which Britain continually expanded and prolonged. Essentially Britain trained Hitler and Stalin, gave Hitler Germany, and Stalin Russia, and then ordered Fascist Germany to attack Communist Russia, watching as they destroyed each other.

In the last days of WWII, America halted outside Berlin allowing Russia to destroy the Germans and many voluntary Scandinavian fascist units. At the same time, Britain pulled out its double agents from the inside.

America and Britain had this inside/outside thing going on the whole time. The British and American High Command were making decisions that troops on the ground could not understand. America could have taken Berlin two weeks earlier, but the British had not yet extracted their agents Martin Bormann and Adolf Hitler.

All the characters from Operation JAMES BOND took their names from Winnie the Pooh. Winston Churchill had been known as ‘Winnie’ since WWI. Ian Fleming was ‘Pooh’. Adolf Hitler was ‘Rabbit’ and Eva Braun was ‘Ms Rabbit’. Admiral Canaris, a British agent in the German High Command, was ‘Eeyore’.

Hitler had Admiral Canaris killed on 9 April 1945 and by the time OPJB came into action he had been dead three weeks. “If Canaris was not actually working for the British, it is clear that he was working against Hitler.”<sup>1</sup>

Operation JAMES BOND was designed by ‘M’ and consisted of: Director of Special Secret intelligence operations, Major Desmond Morton; Prime Minister and 2IC of ‘M’, Winston Churchill; Director of Naval Intelligence, Rear-Admiral John Godfrey; and Lieutenant-Commander of the Royal Navy Intelligence Division, Ian Fleming (Godfrey’s personal assistant).
